

The spotlight is on these students because they gave detailed descriptions this week!

“...Perfect. I saw it in the white room. It was black and zippered up sideways. I was so happy I found my perfect leather jacket”.

-Student A

“...Then when Miguel threw me the ball he threw it so high that I leapt like a giant frog and caught it in mid air...”

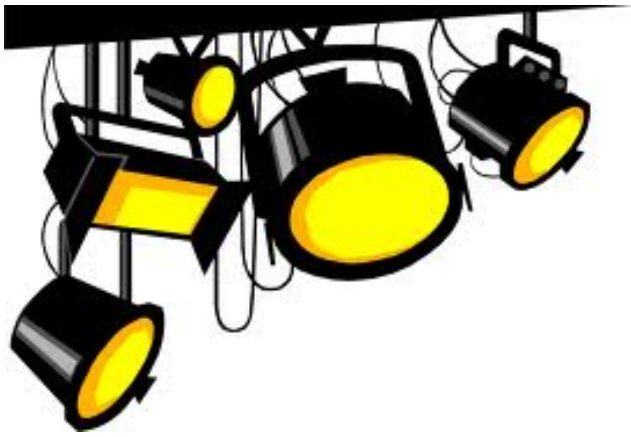

-Student B

“...First my mom put the steak in buttermilk then in flower. Last, she fried it. It was so good that I ate two pieces. Her food was so delicious that there was nothing left inside the pots. That put a smile on my face!”

--Student C

“...I already felt hot steam inside me and embarrassment. I knew I had to do the right thing. I took some deep breaths and walked away...”
